

Discussion Starters

- ◆ What fear keeps you from moving forward when God asks you to do something?
- ◆ How can you overcome this fear with the Lord's help?
- ◆ Take a moment to reflect on a time when you aimlessly wandered through the mist, slipping and falling down life's path. In what ways did you sense the Good Shepherd following behind you, allowing you to stumble in order to prepare you for the High Places?
- ◆ The Good Shepherd is the potter and you are his clay. Reflect on the ways the Good Shepherd is fashioning you into a fine vessel. Be willing to let him shape, mold, and refine you for his glory.
- ◆ Life can engulf us into unwanted chasms, and it is during these times that we must cling to the Good Shepherd. Reflect on a time when he miraculously presented a handrail to assist you across an unsteady bridge.
- ◆ Take a moment to reflect on a time when you aimlessly wandered through the mist, slipping and falling down life's path. In what ways did you sense the Good Shepherd following behind you, allowing you to stumble in order to prepare you for the High Places?
- ◆ What troubles weigh heavily on your soul? Take comfort in knowing the joy of the morning is coming soon. Does the darkness seem more hopeful with the Good Shepherd by your side?
